Ranma 1/2
Certificate of Authenticity
This certifies that the accompanying animation artwork is an original, limited edition Chroma-Cel™. Chroma-Cels™ are created by a unique, proprietary printing process whereby a computer operated laser transfers the image onto an animation cel.
This image is an exact reproduction of an original master cel created for the packaging of Ranma1/2 television series volume 5 and features girl-type and boy-type Ranma together.
Ranma 1/2 is a gender bending, martial arts comedy centered on Ranma, a highly skilled teenage martial artist, who is accidentally cursed while training in China with his father, Genma Saotome. Unless he finds a cure, cold water transforms Ranma into a female version of himself, and hot water reverses the effect. Soun Tendo, owner of a martial arts school and best friend of Ranma's father, tells his three daughters that one of them is going to marry Ranma. Tendo faints when Ranma arrives and turns out to be a girl! The daughters elect the youngest sister, Akane, to be Ranma's fiancee, because she doesn't like boys anyway, and Ranma's only 1/2 boy.
